

The FCC should reject the NAB's petition 04-160. It's ridiculous to think that XM Radio, or any other form of radio, should be blocked from providing traffic, weather, or any other kind of information. I pay for this stuff, and neither the FCC or the NAB should be dictating what I can buy.